

MORNING APPEAL

FRIDAY, APRIL 29

THE OPEN WAY THE BEST.

The best way to carry a proposition of public interest is to make everything connected with it open and above board. Wherever an attempt is made to conceal the inside workings of a public measure the public suspected jobbery as they have a perfect right to. The proposed School building has an air of mystery about it that will certainly defeat it, if the movers do not come out from behind the screen and take the tax-payers and voters into their confidence.

We all want to know how much of a bonded debt we are asked to assume.

Where the School house is to be built.

Who will be the contractors.

How much the contractors expect to make out of the contract.

These are questions that any taxpayer has a right to ask and get an unequivocal answer.

The parties engineering the new School House job will probably find on election day that an open method of dealing with the tax-payers of Ormsby is the best.

Would Serve Him Right.

We find the following among the dispatches this morning:

CHICAGO, April 26.—An attempt on the life of Election Commissioner Michael Schweisthal, of this city was made tonight by a man named Thomas Kennan, who lost his savings in Schweisthal's bank. He called at the house at night and threatened vengeance. An officer seized him as he was flourishing a revolver. When seen in a cell tonight he was still defiant, and said he was not going to see Schweisthal living in splendor while his wife and children starved.

If ever there could be a justification for taking the life of a fellow-being, beyond the always proper one of self-defense, it would be when the rascality of a wealthy thief had driven a man and his family to poverty while the scoundrel himself still revelled in the money he had stolen. When the savings of years go in a minute in the wreckage of a bank, and the half-crazed head of a family sees the man who has deliberately robbed him of his little all, rolling in luxury, his first thought would naturally be of vengeance through the instrumentality of a pistol or shotgun and if he succeeded in wreaking his vengeance, there would be no jury in the world which would convict him of crime. The acquittal of Cox in San Francisco for killing McLaughlin should be a warning to these rich bandits who have theretofore flched from the poor with impunity.

The above about describes the position of the silver miner of the West and the way the thieving gold bugs live in the East. How long does one suppose we can stand it.

The Democratic majority of the Ways and Means Committee has decided to report a bill removing the tariff on silver-lead ores. How will the party which professes to be the friend of the silver producers of the United States reconcile this action with the interests of the people of the silver-producing States? The miners of Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Montana, etc., will give their own answer to this proposition to make them complete with Peon-mined Mexican ores. At least, if such ore is to be admitted we should get some concession in return, in accordance with the principle of reciprocity, instead of giving away our favors. The measure is not likely to become a law.

The alleged silver meeting at Carson last Wednesday night, was nothing more nor less than an anti Southern Pacific railroad affair. Too many Federal office holders to make any vigorous kick against the gold huggers.—Times Review.

The Executive Committee of the Ormsby county Silver Club decided by a unanimous vote to confine the business of the Club to Silver. The Federal office holders made a fight for Harrison in the Club on Wednesday but failed. The Ormsby Silver Club is a fixed fact and is here to stay.

Milbank, Fox, Burrowe and the Duc de Morney continue to advertise their sham courage and shady honor in two continents at the expense of the unfortunate Mrs. Drayton. It is a pity that any woman's name should be dragged through the gutters of a mere scoundrel, merely to keep
